"Yura-yurari" hot springs discount ticket campaign in Yumoto

While you might want to stay indoors during the chilling winter, this time of year is also the best for dipping in a natural hot springs bath. That is why Iwaki's hot springs town is holding a discount ticket campaign throughout all of February.

After purchasing a set of 5 coupons for ¥3000 these tickets can be exchanged for free admission at hot spring facilities (1 of the 5 tickets can only be exchanged for hot springs admission), food/drink at restaurants, products and retail stores meals, or other items and discounts at other participating stores. The tickets can even be exchanged for participation in cultural workshops including kimono wearing, jangara performance, how to enter a Japanese onsen bath and more (reservations are required up to 2 days before the workshop).

Some restaurants/shops may require two tickets for the free item. Also bear in mind that not all businesses are participating in the campaign. The tickets can be purchased at Iwaki Yumoto Hot Springs Association or the Wai Wai Shop, which are both located in front of Yumoto Station. They can also be purchased from the Iwaki Town Planning Bureau (inside Horuru), several hot spring facilities and restaurants in Yumoto.

For more information about where you can use the tickets or to apply for the cultural workshops please contact the Iwaki Yumoto Hot Springs Association (TEL: 0246-43-3017).

Once you have purchased the tickets, they are valid until the campaign ends on 28 February 2019. However, there are only a limited number of tickets available and they may sell out quickly.

"Hamacom" brainstorming event for local revitalisation

Do you have some interesting ideas about how to revitalise Iwaki and attract more tourists to the city? Even if you haven't thought of something just yet, you may be inspired after hearing what some locals have come up with in order to help bring life back to Iwaki.

"Hamacom" is an abbreviation of "Hamadori" and "Community". These events involve presentations by people who are passionate about the Hamadori region and have an idea they would like to implement but aren't quite sure how to make it materialise.

For this "Hamacom" event, eight people will present their unique ideas or projects with one of the themes relating to how we can bring more overseas tourists to Iwaki. If you would like to share your thoughts about how we can make Iwaki more attractive for foreign tourists, please come along and contribute to the brainstorming session.
